If one crafts business (only one company number) is co-owned by two natural persons (each natural person having a separate personal identification number), please designate the service user prior to logon to e-Invoice. If one natural person (one OIB) is the owner of more than one crafts business (each crafts business having a separate company number), each crafts business should be registered for e-Invoice separately, as a company (Personal Identification Number – OIB + Company number - MB - of the crafts business).

¹ ISO 3166, two-letter code; international country name abbreviation.

Business Units

Business Units are organisational units or other parts of the company tasked by the Business Entity with participating in the e-invoice exchange process separately. If the above mentioned Business Entity wishes to participate in the invoice exchange process as a separate unit, information on the business entity as a separate business unit should also be entered and a corresponding code should be assigned thereto.

Before entering Business Unit's name, please enter abbreviated Business Entity name so that the same Business Unit in the user register could be published under the full name of the Business Unit.
